

		Rights of EOC Members	FULL MEMBER	ASSOCIATE MEMBER	INTERNATIONAL MEMBER
Rights according to the Statute	1	Each “ Full Member ” has the right to be elected and to elect as a member of the Board, and to elect or to be with the right to vote in both cases.	✓
	2	The « Associate Members » will be represented at the Board by one elected representative with the right to vote, who will be elected by the members of the « Associate Members » category.		✓
	3	The « International Members » will be represented at the Board by one elected representative with the right to vote, who will be elected by the members of the « International Members » category.			✓
Information	4	Access to valid, up-to-date processed information about the funding opportunities and the policies of the E.U.	✓	✓	✓
	5	Access to the Weekly Overview, with the use of a code, for valid, up to-date information regarding cooperation proposals.	✓	✓	✓
	6	Identification of specific programmes based on the priorities of the organisation.	✓	✓	✓
	7	Detailed and targeted reports of policies regarding the domains of priority of the partners.	✓		✓
	8	Priority to the search and arrangement of the partners in European Programmes.	✓		✓
	9	Review of EU Guidelines for subjects which affect the domains of the EOC members, which can serve as an occasion for new Proposals.	✓		✓
	10	Free Participation and/or discount in educational seminars which are organized by the EOC, and are mainly about the preparation and management of proposals in European Programmes, based on special invitations.	✓		✓
Counseling	11	Providing counseling regarding the drawing up of proposals (guidance, support and personal interaction with the applicant).	✓		✓
	12	Providing general guidelines regarding the drawing up of proposals.		✓
	13	In-house visits for seminars and presentations about counseling and the management of projects in European Programmes.	✓		✓
Representation in Brussels	14	Capability to access the infrastructure of the Office in Brussels and make use of the Office’s facilities (conference room, access to the internet, phone services and fax).	✓		✓
	15	Right for visits by the personnel for training by the EOC Officers for a short period of time, aiming to promote the individual goals of the interested organisation. The time period is determined according to the Office’s schedule in Brussels.	✓		✓
	16	Capability of representing EOC members at various meetings or conferences which involve them in Brussels by the EOC Officer.	✓		✓